Course Description

Sociology of Life Course will examine the social aspects of aging from birth to old age: including the differences in experiences due to age, historical periods, sequencing and timing of life events, social change, cultural constructions, interdependence of individual lives and the social milieu the individual lives in, methods for the sociological study of lives, and the role of theory in shaping intellectual understanding. Life Course provides an overview of the sociological approach to the study of lives focusing on the paths and turning points that socially situate individual lives.

While this course will touch upon older adults, the focus of this course will be on the earlier years of life. Exploration of childhood, teenagers, young adulthood, and middle adulthood will be accomplished using theoretical perspectives to examine life transitions. Substantive topics include: life course development, theories, challenges to the life course model, normative and non-normative shifts, childhood, youth and identity formation, dating, leaving home, early adulthood, entering the labour force, getting married, having children, middle adulthood, and later adulthood.

Research Poster Assignment

You are to choose an innovation, it can be from any historical era, and explain how the innovation impacted on some aspect of the life course. For example, the drive-in movie theatre was invented in 1933 and by the 1970s and 1980s thousands had closed with the advent of television and multiplex theatres. While in operation drive-in movie theatres were popular as a form of family entertainment and a dating venue for teenagers. Today, the nostalgia of drive-in movies, by the baby boomers, has created a resurgence of this form of entertainment. Alternatively, you might choose a policy that changed the life course for numerous people. For example, during World War II, the need for women workers, in Canada, led to the establishment of day care centres. The war's end led to a closure of these day care centres. These day care centres impacted on the life course of those who utilized them and societal views of childcare. What impact did these day care centres have on the life course: working women, the children who attended them, what did their closure mean to the individuals who utilized them and to our view of working women and childcare?

You must cite the sources you use in the body of your poster. Posters without citations will receive a grade of zero. ASA citations are in brackets, appearing after a cited source and include: the authors' name, date of publication, and page number. For this assignment, if you prefer, you can number the citations and include the full citation on a separate page. You are required to have a minimum of 6 academic sources. We will discuss this assignment in detail in class.

Your poster is to be standard poster board size (22 X 28 inches). No posters larger than this will be accepted. The poster is to be handed in rolled up. Posters unable to be rolled up will not be accepted.

The due date of your assignment is listed below. Assignments are due at the beginning of class. Late assignments are penalized at the rate of 5 marks a day, including weekends and holidays. No assignments will be accepted 7 days after the due date. Please note: assignments are due at the beginning of the class. Assignments handed in after the start time of the class are deemed late and will be penalized with a loss of 5 marks.

NO ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE HANDED IN ELECTRONICALLY.

Participation

Your participation mark is based on your contribution to class discussions. This entails engaging in meaningful discussion and handing in signed group reports. Should you choose to chat with your fellow classmates, play games, check your emails, etc. and not to be part of your group discussion you will forfeit your participation marks for the class.

Office Hours

There are two regularly scheduled office hours each week. Office hours are set to provide students the opportunity to stop by if they have questions, concerns, or would just like to say hello. I am also happy to meet with students outside regularly scheduled office hours, by appointment.

Please Note: I do try to answer e-mail in a timely fashion. I do guarantee a response during my regularly scheduled office hours. I do not discuss marks through e-mail.
