NOTES TO PUBLIC DISCLOSURE TABLES – 2019-20

The Department of Psychology at Lakehead University has an M.A. and a Ph.D. program in Clinical Psychology. The M.A. Clinical Psychology program was the first graduate program to be developed in the university, and similarly, the Ph.D. program was its first Doctoral program. The Ph.D. program has graduated 68 students to date and 97% of the graduates are registered for professional practice (or on track for registration) with provincial regulatory Colleges. Our graduates have successfully registered in jurisdictions across Canada and internationally.

NOTES FOR PD TABLE 1: APPLICATIONS, OFFERS AND ENROLLMENTS OVER PAST 7 YEARS

Please Note: (a) In the top portion of the table, data provided to prior to 2016/2017 reflects information about applicants to the PhD program who already have a master's level degree. Data provided from 2016/2017 forward reflects information about applicants to the MA program who have HBA/HBSc degrees (as per the July 2016 Annual Report Instructions). (b) Information is not included for the diversity question as self-disclosed information may be incomplete, inaccurate, and potentially identifying. The Clinical Psychology programs at Lakehead University view diversity as an essential quality of an outstanding institution and encourage and support participation of the widest range of perspectives and experiences in our training programs (for more information about diversity and equity at Lakehead University click here).

NOTES FOR PD TABLE 2: INTERNSHIP APPLICATIONS OVER PAST 7 YEARS (PD Table 2):

Please Note: In the 2015/16 year 1 of the 5 students sought a non-APPIC internship for personal reasons. Thus, the match rate for students applying through APPIC was 75% and the match to CPA-accredited site for the applicants was 50%.

NOTES FOR PD TABLE 3: STUDENT ACTIVITIES OVER PAST 7 YEARS

Please Note: (a) Information is not provided for the diversity question as self-disclosed information may be incomplete, inaccurate, and potentially identifying. The Clinical Psychology programs at Lakehead University view diversity as an essential quality of an outstanding institution and encourage and support participation of the widest range of perspectives and experiences in our training programs (for more information about diversity and equity at Lakehead University click here). (b) Through the annual review process, students occasionally report working more than 20 hours/week. While this work is usually relevant to academic or clinical pursuits, students are directed to reduce their outside work hours/week to below 20. In most cases these are students who have completed all program requirements except the dissertation.

NOTES FOR PD TABLE 4: OVERVIEW OF PROGRAMME GRADUATES SINCE LAST SELF-STUDY

Please Note: (a) For the 2015/2016 date on average time to completion in years – post MA-entry, the meant time to completion was 5.14 years after excluding data from two students with unique personal circumstances and longer completion times (i.e., 7.0 and 7.58 years). (c) Information is not provided for the diversity question as self-disclosed information may be incomplete, inaccurate, and potentially identifying. The Clinical Psychology programs at Lakehead University view diversity as an essential quality of an outstanding institution and encourage and support participation of the widest range of perspectives and experiences in our training programs (for more information about diversity and equity at Lakehead University click here).
